

Employee's Matter! January 2010.

Jordan Lorentzon

"He ain't heavy, he's my brother," He's also a long time employee at Resourceful Futures. Jordan Lorentzon is an easy going, fun loving guy who puts people at ease with his carefree attitude. Jordan always seems to have a smile to give to clients and employees alike.

He does a great Australian accent, and can recite a line or two from just about any movie you can think of. Ask Jordan any question and he'll give you a great answer, maybe not the answer you were hoping for but a good answer none-the-less.

I have had the privilege to know Jordan for my whole life, since he is my older brother. We come from a family of three boys (quite a handful) Jordan, Brady, and Cameron (That's me). Our father Wade, and our mother Jerilynne. Our Parents are both Psychologists and have always taught us to be respectful and caring and to show and give our love freely. Jordan has always looked out for his younger brothers and has often had to be the mediator to keep the peace between Brady and I. Jordan is a natural when it comes to people.

Jordan has been in the community disability services for over five years and in that time he has made many strong bonds and friendships. He was the first of us brothers to come into this industry and has lead the way for Brady and I. Jordan is dedicated and strong willed and he can be a pillar of strength to anyone in need. He is always attentive and will listen to a person's trouble with an open mind. The clients love him. His co-workers love him. What's not to love? That's my bro!
